

PAOLO CASTAGNETTI

Junior Narrative Designer

About Me

I have professional experience writing and adapting narratives.

My storytelling process starts with worldbuilding, followed by narrative design and gameplay integration. Passionate about worldbuilding and storytelling, my goal is to create experiences that evoke the same emotions I felt growing up with video games.

Experience

Game Designer at Funny Tales s.r.l.

APR 2024 - Present

- Vrider SBK DLC: a VR racing game. I've contributed by focusing on track optimization to improve performance and driving experience. I also contribute to track design to enhance player immersion.
- Zoppel: The Legend of Furiax: a mobile Shoot 'Em Up game. I've contributed by assisting in the creation of documentation related to gameplay mechanics, level design, narrative design, game economy, and UI/UX design.
- Unannounced narrative game: I'm currently working on an interactive narrative VR game project, collaborating on the documentation for gameplay mechanics and handling the entire story, characters, and dialogues
